

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL.

MEMPHIS, THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 1860.

BY McLANAHAN, TROUSDALE & DILL.

Daily Appeal.

LETTER FROM MR. BROWN.

WASHINGTON, February 29, 1860.
GENTLEMEN.—I have just reached me, in which you ask my views on the state of parties, and what, in my judgment, is to be done. I am a member of the Senate, and at the seat of Federal authority, so as to be in a position to speak with some knowledge of the State to pursue, as the period for selecting a chief magistrate in exceed Mr. Buchanan's appointment.

I shall briefly reply to your question in the point of view of a friend, without any comment on political.

The Democrats and Unionists, which you allude to in the public mind, is not unscincered for it would, indeed, be mere words, if at the Republic environment with such words as new erring—the duties of patriotism were never so stern in their demands.

The Republicans, an organization known as the Republican party confides in the policical field, confiding to the government, there in the hope that the party is a standing declaration of war against the South.

How this party can be defeated and destroyed is now the problem that requires the utmost attention of the nation.

The South, in the view of the Republicans, is an enemy to be defeated.

I am not a party man, but I have seen the choice the South will make at Charleston. For its candidate, I present himself, and the other man, who is to be chosen.

I am sure that he is a man of

great worth, and a man of high character.

I am sure that he is a man of

great worth, and a man of

high character.
